8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

9 LISA ANN-MARIE GOSS,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 NANCY A. BERRYHILL, Acting
13 Commissioner of the Social Security Administration,

14 Defendant.
15

CASE NO. 2:16-cv-01888 JRC

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

16 This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), Fed. R. Civ. P. 73 and 17 Local Magistrate Judge Rule MJR 13 (see also Notice of Initial Assignment to a U.S.
18 Magistrate Judge and Consent Form, Dkt. 6; Consent to Proceed Before a United States
19 Magistrate Judge, Dkt. 7).

20 This case is before the Court on plaintiff's failure to respond to the Court's
21 Scheduling Order (Dkt. 13), dated and mailed to plaintiff on March 2, 2017. This Order
22 directed plaintiff to file an opening brief on or before March 31, 2017. Plaintiff has 23 neither filed an opening brief nor asked the Court for more time to do so.
24

1 Plaintiff, Lisa Ann-Marie Goss, proceeding pro se (Dkt. 2) filed her complaint in 2 December, 2016 (Dkts. 1, 3). Because plaintiff is proceeding pro se and was granted in
3 forma pauperis status, the Court directed service of the summons and complaint (Dkt. 4).
4 Following a motion for extension to file the answer (Dkt. 9), the Acting Commissioner
5 filed the Answer/Administrative Record on March 1, 2017 (Dkt. 12). The Scheduling
6 Order was filed and mailed to plaintiff on March 2, 2017 (Dkt. 13).

7 The Scheduling Order provides in pertinent part:

9 (1) Plaintiff's Opening Brief

10 (a) Beginning on page one, plaintiff shall list the errors alleged (for 11 example, "Issue No. 1 – The ALJ failed to properly evaluate plaintiff's 12 subjective complaints of pain."), followed by a clear statement of the 13 relief requested. A general statement of an issue, such as "the ALJ's 14 decision to deny benefits is not supported by substantial evidence," is 15 unacceptable. Assignments of error that are not listed in this section of the 16 opening brief will not be considered or ruled upon.

17 (b) Plaintiff shall provide a brief summary of the relevant
18 procedural history of the case. Plaintiff shall not include a lengthy 19 recitation of background facts or medical evidence in this section.
20 Discussion of the relevant facts must be presented in the argument section 21 in the context of the specific errors alleged.

22 (c) Subsequent sections of the opening brief must fully explain
23 each issue raised in the assignments of error and must include citations to 24 the specific pages of the administrative record and the relevant legal authority that support each argument and request for relief.

Dkt. 13, p. 2.

Plaintiff appealed the denial of her Social Security applications by filing this lawsuit and thus has the responsibility to explain to the Court (1) what the ALJ did wrong, (2) what evidence supports plaintiff's position, and (3) why the ALJ's error was harmful, i.e., why it affected the outcome of the case. This responsibility is met by filing

1 an opening brief. The opening brief is important because it informs everyone of the
2 specific claims plaintiff wishes the Court to address, and gives the Acting Commissioner
3 an opportunity to respond. Without an opening brief the Court would have to guess at 4 what claims plaintiff intends to present. Additionally, the Court cannot act as the lawyer
5 for either side, that is, the Court cannot make arguments on behalf of a party and cannot
6 decide the case based on issues that the parties have not raised.

8 Only after plaintiff and the Commissioner file their briefs, will the Court be in a
9 position to review the arguments made by both sides and issue a decision. In this case,
10 plaintiff's failure to file an opening brief not only deprives the Court of knowing what 11 claims she wishes the Court to review, it also violates the Court's Scheduling Order. If 12 the Court finds that plaintiff failed to file her brief without just cause, the Court will 13 dismiss the case. Local Civil Rule 11(c); see, also Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b). Given the 14 circumstances in this case, however, the Court would prefer to decide the case on the 15 merits and does not deem the drastic measure of dismissal appropriate at this time.

16 The Court therefore ORDERS:

17 (1) Lisa Ann-Marie Goss, plaintiff, must submit to the Court by June 2, 2017
18 an opening brief explaining what the ALJ did wrong, with citations to the Administrative 19 Record, what evidence supports plaintiff's position, and why the ALJ's error was 20 harmful, and also must follow the requirements noted in the Scheduling Order (see Dkt.
21 13).
24

1 (2) If plaintiff does not file or cannot file an opening brief, she must explain
2 why the case should not be dismissed for failing to follow the Court's scheduling order.
3 She must submit this explanation to the Court no later than June 2, 2017.

4 (3) If plaintiff files an opening brief or explains why she failed to follow the 5 scheduling order, the Acting Commissioner shall file a response by June 30, 2017.

6 (4) If plaintiff does not file an opening brief or does not explain why she failed
7 to follow the scheduling order, the case shall be dismissed.

8 (5) The Clerk is directed to mail a copy of this Order to plaintiff at the last
9 known address.

10 (6) The Court directs plaintiff to the Court's website, which includes 11 information for pro se litigants, such as the Pro Se Guide to Filing Your Lawsuit in 12 Federal Court, which includes resources for potentially finding legal advice:
13 <http://www.wawd.uscourts.gov/representing-yourself-pro-se> (last visited May 1, 2017).
14 See "Resources That May Help You" located at Pro Se Guide, pp. 35-37.

15 Dated this 3rd day of May, 2017.
